REMINISCENCES OF OUR PIONEER DAYS

Cleanings From the Records Left By Men Who Laid the Founda- tion of Our County.

The following news item copied from the Gazette of September 10th, 1870, would seem to indicate that at one time Redwood Creek was "some pumpkins" in the fish line: "J. B. Rollo of this town captured a sturgeon in Redwood Creek last Saturday that lays over anything yet seen in these waters—or we venture to say in any other waters of the State. It measured 10 feet in length and weighed 213 pounds. Chase Littlejohn and Billy Ford caught another one since then which measured eight feet in length, and in fact it is almost an every day occurrence for either Rollo or the boys mentioned to capture sturgeon of about that size.
They catch them just for fun—merely to see them cavort and flounder around and get mad at having the harpoon thrust into them."

A fire which came very near being fatal in its consequences, but which owing to the prompt action of the firemen resulted in but a small loss, occurred in the home of Captain Stafford in the eastern part of this town on the night of September 20th. Apparently the fire was the result of a thoughtless act upon the part of Mrs. Stafford, who on retiring left a lamp burning in her room. Mrs. Stafford failed to note that there was some children's clothing hanging on the wall directly over the lamp, and these finally became ignited from the heat of the lamp. The flames spread rapidly up the wall and when Mrs. Stafford was awakened by the noise she found herself nearly suffocated by the smoke and it was only by the utmost exertion that she was enabled to escape from the room with her children. When the alarm was given the firemen responded quickly and succeeded in confining the fire to the room where it started.

On the afternoon of October 11th, at Halfmoon Bay, what appeared to have been a slight quarrel between Silas B.
Hogle and S. W. Snodaker, two prominent residents of the Coastside, resulted in the almost instant death of the former and the incarceration of the latter on a charge of murder. The two men apparently had engaged in a somewhat stormy discussion and were standing but a few feet apart, when Snodaker suddenly drew a single barreled breach-loading pistol from his pocket and fired point blank at Hogle, the ball entering just above the navel and lodging in the spinal column. Evidently Hogle did not for a few moments after the discharge of the pistol realize that he had been shot, for as the sound of the discharge died away he remarked to Snodaker, "Sam, you had better put that pistol away for you might hurt somebody." A few moments after uttering the remark, Hogle sank into a chair, and within less than an hour was dead. As soon as the announcement of Hogle's death was made Snodaker surrendered himself to the officers of the county and waiving an examination was brought to this city and locked up in the county jail to await the action of the grand jury. The coroner's jury, which was summoned by Justice of the Peace Walker of Halfmoon Bay, simply returned a verdict that Hogle came to his death from the effects of a pistol shot wound inflicted by Snodaker but made no specific charge, and the whole matter was dropped pending the developments to be made at the trial.

On the 6th of January, 1871, A. T.
Warren, who for five years had been associated with H. A. Schofield in the publication of the Gazette, sold his interest in the paper to his partner and retired from the business, leaving the paper to be conducted by Mr. Schofield.
Mr. Warren had been the mechanic of the firm and had charge of the printing department of the office. Practically he had been connected with the paper during all the time of its publication, having entered the office as an apprentice just after it was started and learned the first rudiments of the trade from William Godfrey, its founder, and with a slight intermission had been connected with the office until this time.

With the close of the year 1870, the old officers who had conducted the affairs of the Redwood City Masonic Lodge surrendered their positions and installed the following officers for the next Masonic year: H. N. Nutting, worshipful master; S. Bornstein, senior warden; R. J. McNulty, junior warden; P. P. Chamberlain, secretary; T. W.
Lathrop, treasurer; A. Teague, senior deacon; D. J. Leary, junior deacon; F. Koch, Tyler. Members of the Masonic fraternity of the county will notice that this marked the beginning of the official career in the Order of a man still prominent in the Lodge and enjoying to the fullest the love and esteem of its membership, in the person of Past Master P. P. Chamberlain, who has continued his active interest in the work of the lodge to this date.

On the evening of January 9th, 1871, the new chiefs of Metamora Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, were raised up as follows: W. H. Shreve, sachem, J. W. Turner, senior saganore; A.

Dennis, junior saganore; J. W. Bartlett, prophet; H. King, 1st asanap; H.
Offerman, 2d asanap; J. Underwood, guard of the wigwam; J. F. Murphy, guard of the forest.

Apparently many of the readers of the local newspapers of the early days had formed an unfortunate habit which has continued more or less prevalent even to this day—the disposition to put off the little formality of paying for the papers which they insist shall be delivered promptly each week, and that the Gazette had some of this character on its list is shown by the following rather original suggestion to its readers of a means of squaring their bills without incurring additional expense in the transmission of the cash which would gladden the heart of the editor and enable him to meet the claims of the always hungry—and sometimes thirsty—printer on Saturday night. Under the heading of "A Good Chance," editor Schofield had this to say: "No doubt many of our readers living at a distance from the county seat, who are owing for one or two years subscription, are anxious to square up if they could do so without incurring the expense of coming to town for that express purpose.
To all such we suggest that they send along the coin by some one of their neighbors who are summoned as jurors for next Monday. We simply throw out this suggestion as a matter of accommodation to our delinquent subscribers—that's all." Evidently the editor had at least as much faith in the prospective jurors as in delinquent subscribers.

Confidence Operator Sentenced.

W. Oliver Peery, the confidence operator, who cut a wide swath in San Mateo's cafe district was on Monday sentenced to two years' in San Quentin by Superior Judge Buck.
Peery, who comes of a Texas family of wealth and standing, forged the name of his San Mateo employer, W. B. Hess, to a $20 check which he passed on Frank Corbett, a saloon keeper of that place. Although he had practiced law and had been an employee of the Texas Legislature, Peery was wanted for a number of crimes by the police of Oregon as well as by the sheriff of Santa Clara county, for the uttering of false checks in San Jose. Peery pleaded guilty to the San Mateo offense and gave as a reason for his crime that he was drunk.

LOVERS

of good health should prevent sickness instead of letting themselves get sick and then try to cure it. So long as you keep your liver, bowels and stomach in a healthy and active condition you won't get sick. Ballard's Herbine relieves constipation, inactive liver and all stomach and bowel troubles. Sold by Ryan's Drug Store.

Ellene Anderson, proprietor of the Del Monte hotel, has been notified by the Norwegian consul in San Francisco of the death of a wealthy aunt in Norway. Her estate will be divided among a large number of heirs, but Mr. Anderson having been a favored nephew, expects to get more than a pro rata share of the property.

A Neighbor of Yours

Ballard's Snow Liniment relieves all aches and pains, and heals all wounds.

NEWS GATHERED FROM THE COUNTY

Interesting Notes Gathered by Hustling Reporters in the Country Districts.

Halfmoon Bay Notes

Of late this town has been suffering from a series of petty robberies the victims of which, as well as many others familiar with the fact, are beginning to lay to the efforts of a local gang of candidates for San Quentin. The last victim of the crooks was Quinlan's saloon, where the thieves secured something like $20 in coin. The operators gained admittance to the place by removing a pane of glass from a rear window. Once in the place they leisuredly rifled a slot machine, securing between $15 and $20, and helped themselves to the small change in the till.

Last Friday afternoon the house of Thomas Bates at South Granada was entirely destroyed by fire. Serious damage was also done to the lumber yard and planing mill adjoining. Indications seem to be that the fire was of incendiary origin. Mr. Bates was away from home when the fire started, and had left the place in charge of his son.
The boy went to the postoffice about noon and when he returned found the place in flames.

Jane Hatch celebrated the 83d anniversary of his birth last Friday. He was the recipient of several handsome mementoes from old time friends.

Mrs. B. A. Griffith has nearly recovered from her recent illness.
Miss Maggie McGinty of Berkeley was a recent visitor with her brother, Archie McGinty.

Doings at Colma.

The Colma Ladies Aid gave a lunch Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter White. There was a good attendance and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

H. Gettings has commenced the erection of a handsome new home at the corner of Colma street and Merced avenue. The improvements will cost in the neighborhood of $5000.

Mrs. Harry Young entertained the members of the Ladies Aid at their last meeting. A pleasing program of vocal and instrumental music was given and this was followed by the service of delicious refreshments by the hostess.
The next meeting will be held on the 23d with Mrs. Bert Clark.

J. Steel is building a handsome residence on Merced avenue.
The Knickerbocker Club held its meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. J. Sweeney and was pleasantly entertained.

San Bruno Happenings.

E. P. Barnes and family, of Huncton Park, have gone on a camping trip to the Yosemite.

Mrs. Jacobson, of Huntington Park, has been visiting with her daughter at San Francisco.

P. Amiraud has purchased the lot adjoining his home in the Fourth Addition and will erect a studio for Mrs.
Amiraud.

Edward C. Doyle and family of the Third Addition have moved into the home of Mr. McNeil at Huntington Park. Mr. McNeil has moved to Porterville for the summer.

A meeting of the carpenters of San Bruno was held Wednesday evening at the fire house for the purpose of forming a Carpenters Union. W. A. Cole, organizer for the Building Trades Council, addressed the meeting.

Members of the local Woodmen of the World and Women of Woodcraft will enjoy a banquet at Green's Hall on the evening of the 21st.

Montara Matters.

The wedding of Miss Florence A.
Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C.
Gray, and Henry J. Reef, of the firm of Kent & Reef, is announced to take place June 8th. Both parties to the interesting announcement are well known and popular on the coast side.

The Welfare Club dance at Montara Hall last Saturday night was a decided success, as are any of the affairs of this popular organization.

F. R. Deane, a local contractor, has secured another large sewer contract from the Montara Company. The Company has now let contracts for 8000 feet of sewers since the first of the year.

Moss Beach Notes.

A number of the Odd Fellows residing here are discussing the advisability of organizing a lodge. At present we have no fraternal organization of any character, and there is good prospect of the movement being successful.

Cards are out announcing a dance to be given on Saturday evening, April 23, at Morse's Hall.

Mr. Howard, of Grimes, Cal., has let a contract for the building of a residence here to Linster & Vint, who will commence work on the new building immediately.

Mr. Dugdale has been carrying his arm in a sling for the past week as the

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

Now that preparations for the fourth of July celebration has taken organized shape let us all get in and work. From this time on let the watchword be "boost."

In the selection of G. W. Love as the executive head of the big celebration the committee has made a wise choice. Mr. Love has already demonstrated that he is master of the necessary details of a big public demonstration of this character and the people have the assurance that he will devote his utmost energies to the success of the enterprise and the ultimate glory of the city in which he is interested.

Take a look at the passing show. What do you see? Materialism rampant; matter above mind; intellect at a discount, Jeffries and Johnson, two big ignorant animals, one white, the other black, monopolizing public attention. On July 4th this pair of pigs propose to dedicate our National holiday in a brutal contest, to determine which big bruiser shall beat and batter the other into insensibility. The prize to be fought for is not "the laurel wreath of the ancient Olympic games," which kings were proud to win and wear, but the coarse commercial prize of $101,000 in cold gold coin of the United States of America. More money than painter, poet or philosopher can hope to win in a lifetime. Is not this a bitter satire on modern civilization.

If the voters of Redwood City are taking much interest in the approach municipal election it has not been evidenced by the usual street corner discussions. While apparently there is no opposition to Clerk Plump and Treasurer Towne, both of whom have made efficient officers, candidates for the two vacancies on the Board of Trustees and for the place of Marshal Christ are not so bashful. For the Marshals, Chas. Jacobus is after Watchmanh Coleman, the nominee of the Good Government and expects Coleman will at least know that he has had opposition. For the vacancies in the Trustees, the League will have as their opponents Trustee Hynding, who has been on the board for a number of years, and C. E. Cumberston, who for the past year has taken an active interest in city affairs and been a regular spectator at the meetings of the Council. Apparently it is an open fight with the satisfaction that whoever wins the city will have good officials.

Antonio Bonzani, plaintiff in the divorce suit of Antonio Bonzani against Virginia Bonzani, has petitioned the Superior Court for a change of venue to San Francisco. The petition will be heard on March twenty-fourth.

Having seen the piece in the Santa Cruz Sentinel under date of March 12th saying that I had tried to make a compromise with Azro Coburn of Holyoke, Mass., in regard to L. Coburn's property, I wish to say that I never made any such offer nor do I intend to as who ever heard of L. Coburn making any compromise with his dear relations when they tried to beat him the last two times out of his hard earned property. I do say that his brothers have been trying to get me to go in with them for over 15 years past and make L. Coburn out crazy or incompetent and that they would agree with me if I would do so to give me an equal share with them in all the money and property that he, L. Coburn, had. All that the piece was published for is to try and make the public believe that they are doing it for Mr. L. Coburn's good, but such is not the case, as it is for their own personal greed, and I do further say that they, the dear nephews have neither respect, dignity, principle, pride, shame or good judgment as I look at it. It seems to me that the relatives have a Mania to get the uncle's property, they do not seem to think of anything else. They want something for nothing, as there is hardly a day passes but what you see in the newspapers cases where the nephews, cousins or some of the relatives are trying to make some one out incompetent, so to take charge of the property and in all the different cases you see, it is always some one that had quite a lot of property or money, as they never try to bother any one that is poor, the poor can look out for themselves, and no one ever bothers a poor person, even if they are incompetent, but let them go to the poor farm. Do you suppose for a minute that if Mr. L. Coburn had nothing, no property or money, that his dear relations would have been trying for the last 15 years to make him out incompetent so they could have looked after him? No they would not have known him as he would have been beneath their notice if they

Participants in Presentation of "Sham Aroon."

The threatening weather of Wednesday night did not dampen the ardor of those wishing to witness the Irish drama entitled "Sham Aroon," given by the members of the sodalities in Parochial Hall, Menlo Park, for the hall was actually crowded to the doors. There was no standing room left. The play was excellently presented, all the parts being well taken by the embryo actors and actresses who showed the sangfroid of professionals. The performance was enjoyed by the big audience who encircled the play ers time and again. They acquitted themselves in a manner that would do credit to others of much greater pretensions.

The plot of the play was laid in the estate of Lord Formey's estate on the Blackwater, the southern portion of Ireland. The portrayal of the landlord, his rascal agent, the tenant and his family, the happy go lucky Shaun Aroon, Black Andy, James, the servant, and the other characters of the drama was all that could be expected. The performance was in three acts with interlude of music song and moving pictures. Shaun Aroon, a roving fellow with light purse and lighter heart, was the character taken by James Fitzgerald. He played his part well bringing out all the rare humor that the character presented. Joe Kelly, (as Lord Formey disguised as Black Andy), a good hearted landlord, made a fine looking and princely land owner. Fergus O'Riordan, Formey's rascally agent, was the dear nephews, as they call themselves, had any business and attended to it as well as they have tried and are trying to beat L. Coburn out of his property and make more out of it in the end than they will in this case.

Lee Controversy Settled.

The controversy between the heirs of the late Mary A. Lee and Attorney L. M. Hoefler has been happily settled by the withdrawal of all the charges made by William McQuillan, uncle of James and Mary Lee. The matter came up in open court Wednesday. During the proceedings a clash occurred between Attorney J. J. Barret, appearing for Mr. Hoefler and John S. Hogan representing McQuillan. The lie was character taken by John W. Morey and he played his part like an accomplished actor bringing out all the deceit of his position. John B. Welsh, as the old farmer Dan O'Grady, was graceful, dignified and pronounced in all his actions and was a perfect master of his lines. Mrs. O'Grady, the farmers' wife was the part taken by Miss Grace Parlee. She made a good wife and her daughter, Molly O'Grady, was the character taken by Miss Frances Casey, and her companion was Miss Mollie Donovan represented by Miss Margaret Kelly. The young ladies did excellently, appearing perfectly at home on the stage. Leo Duff, the young son of the O'Grady's, was a dutiful son and a fighter. Harry Morey Jr., represented Old Hennings, the money lender and he certainly acted the part of a money shark. John J. Doyle, the funny man of the play taking the part of James the servant. David Roche made a good policeman appearing as Nipper.

The drama happily ended in the farmer's daughter marrying Lord Formey and they lived for ever after in happiness. During the second act pictures of the principal cities and scenes on the screen and they were much enjoyed. The singing of Irish songs by Miss Parlee and James Fitzgerald brought forth deafening applause as did the Irish music by the orchestra. Much of the success of the performance is due Father Harrington for his untiring efforts in staging the drama.

passed between the men and Judge Buck fined the latter $20. Hoefler agreed to resign as guardian of the persons of James and Mary Lee if the charges against him were withdrawn. This was done by the other side who exonerated him and commended his actions as guardian.

Yesterday Attorney Hoefler filed his final account, report and resignation. The accounts show that he received from the estate of his wards the sum of $1650.47 and disbursed a like amount. The account and resignation will be acted on in the Superior Court this morning at 10 o'clock. Hoefler waives all right to fees.

The Central Trust Company, guardian of the estates of John and Mary Lee, has also filed his final account. The amount received by the Company is $5228.78 and the amount disbursed it $3070.19.

INAUGURATION OF CELEBRATION PLANS

Committee Begins Its Work For Redwood City's Mammoth Holiday Entertainment

Redwood City's mammoth celebration of the Fourth of July, which will be participated in by the residents of every section of San Mateo County and which has been under discussion for some weeks was made an assured fact last Tuesday evening, when the general committee which is to have general supervision of the great event was formally organized at a meeting held in the Red Mens' Hall.

While the meeting had been originally called at the Town Hall, it was found impossible to secure the room for the purpose owing to an unavoidable call for a special meeting of the Council. Practically all of the delegates to the general committee had assembled at the Town Hall when it was found that the rooms could not be used, and at the suggestion of G. W. Lovie they adjourned to the Red Mens' Hall which was placed at their disposal.

That citizens in every walk in life are thoroughly interested in the success of the movement is evidenced by the fact that practically every organization in the city, both fraternal and civic, had responded to the request that they appoint a delegate to the general committee and that each of these was represented at the opening of the meeting. When Chief J. N. Winter of the Fire Department, with which organization the suggestion for the mammoth celebration originated, called the meeting to order and requested the secretary of the board of fire delegates to call the roll of representatives it was found that the several organizations of the city were represented as follows:

Board of Trade—Carl Muller.
Morrison Grove, U. A. O.—George W. Lovie.
Sequoia Chapter, O. E. S.—P. P. Chamberlain.
Redwood City Arrie, F. O. E.—D. S. Stafford.
Fire Department—Joseph N. Winter.
Court Madrone, F. O. E.—Henry Lamb.
Bay View Lodge, I. O. O. F.—L. F. Behrens.
I. O. E. S.—Mr. Simmons.
Routin Parlor, N. D. W.—Dora Wilson.
Redwood Parlor, N. S. G. W.—J. F. Dwyer.
Woman's Club—Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain.
Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F.—Lydia Miner.
Rotamora Tribe, I. O. R. M.—H. Anderson.
Knights of the Royal Arch—William J. Plump.
City Council—C. J. Bryndin.
Women of Woodcraft—Mrs. George W. Winter.
Madrone Circle, C. of F.—Fred Becker Jr.
Woman's Relief Corps—Mrs. F. E. George.
Embarkadero Camp, W. O. W.—J. E. Harris.

Stating briefly the objects of the meeting and the importance of united and hearty action that the coming observance might be one worthy of the city and the hearty promises of cooperation already voiced from various sections of the county, Mr. Winter asked that the committee proceed to permanent organization by the selection of a chairman and secretary. This was responded to by the unanimous selection of G. W. Lovie as chairman and R. F. Chilcott as secretary of the general committee, and the meeting at once vigorously proceeded to the business which it has taken in hand. In outlining the work before the committee chairman Lovie suggested that it should proceed largely upon the lines of the intended celebration of 1905, which was unceremoniously interrupted by the earthquake. As upon that occasion the celebration of the rehabilitation of the handsome new Courthouse was an event in which the people of the entire county was interested and which they would gather in great numbers in this city on the coming National Holiday to celebrate. The people of Redwood City, said he, have taken in hand to properly entertain this great throng of people and it must be done with a lavish hand. This must be made a day notable not only in the annals of Redwood City but in the history of San Mateo County. This committee has undertaken this work and there was every reason to believe that they would succeed. To accomplish this result would require the expenditure of a considerable sum of money, but he had confidence in the public spirit and liberality of the people of Redwood City.

A general discussion of ways and means led to the opinion that the work could best be conducted if divided into sections as to detail and each department placed in the hands of a special committee whose members were especially adapted to the duties assigned them. With this end in view Chairman Lovie was empowered to appoint at his leisure such committees as he deems necessary to aid in the enterprise.

Particular stress was laid upon the importance at this time of a systematic effort at publicity in which the merchants and business and professional men of the city should unite. As an initial step in this direction an official envelope and letter head will be prepared by the executive committee which will have general charge of the celebration and all will be asked to make use of this in their correspondence during the next three months.

From the suggestions made it seems apparent that one of the special features of the day will be a firemen's tournament, to which every town in the county will be invited to send a team for competition. To stimulate interest and activity among the firemen of the several localities it is probable that some attractive prizes will be offered. It is also the desire of the committee to plan for a monster gathering of the members of the various fraternal organizations of the county. Numerous other attractions were suggested and discussed.

Chairman Lovie is generally considered the man for the place and has already demonstrated that he is prepared to make an active and efficient executive head for the proposed celebration. Already he has devoted a considerable time to the work of selecting the committees and to the formulation of plans which will be announced later.

Residents Make Vigorous Kick.

The following communications complaining about the roads in the first township have been received. Supervisor Casey is perhaps not wholly to blame for his road funds will not permit permanent road building.

I think it is time that property owners made it their business to see that we have a fine road from San Francisco to San Mateo. The idea of people having to go to San Francisco by way of San Jose is preposterous. The road from San Mateo to Menlo or even to San Jose, is not bad; the road that was built between Belmont and Redwood can not be improved upon—but if you expect San Francisco people to build and live down the peninsula you must have good roads. Nearly every family has an automobile or carriage, and they like to run up to the city often, to shop or call. When San Mateo County people make this possible by fine roads, then you will have all the residents you wish—you will not be able to build homes rapidly enough.

You look towards the electric car's completion between San Mateo and San Jose as a panacea for all your needs—I do not agree with you. I am a property owner, and if I had to take my choice between the electric car or fine county roads, I would take the roads. You go East and the first thing you will notice are the fine roads—you go to the little city of Honolulu and all the roads leading through the island towards the city are magnificent. Another thing one notices at once is the fine electric car system, the low steps, easy to get on and off. The cars here are built for men, not women, children and invalids.

Let the property owners get together and demand good roads. We certainly pay for them. If we do not pay enough, then let us pay more—I consider it a disgrace, the road from Colma to Millbrae.

Yours respectfully,
A. TAX PAYER.

Editor Times-Gazette, Sir: Permit me to register a vigorous complaint against the wretched conditions of the roads in San Mateo county, between Colma and Millbrae. As a tax payer of San Mateo county and also San Francisco county, I would ask you to use the influence of your paper to spur the derelict Supervisor, (I have heard his name is Casey) to action. The roads of San Mateo county between Colma and Millbrae are the talk of the motorists and horseowners and are spoken of as a disgrace to the taxpayers and officials of your county. Who ever is responsible for the miserable roads is keeping much money away from the business men of your county. Thousands of motorists and horsemen would visit San Mateo county but for the wretched condition of the roads between Colma and Millbrae. The condition of your highway between the points named is being made known throughout the State and will continue to prove a detriment to the development and prosperity of your county unless Casey is spurred to act.

You need the recall in your county laws. Perhaps then your negligent officials would move.

Yours truly,
A. S. LILLIE, 3514 Army street, San Francisco.

Supervisors' Adjourned Meeting

The board of supervisors held an adjourned meeting last Monday all the members were present. The petition for the incorporation of Hillsboro went over for one week at the request of Attorney Reddington who appeared for the petition.

A portion of the San Pedro road in the first township made impassable by mountain slides was declared abandoned. The board adopted the usual resolution vacating the road. A deed for a new highway to take the place of the old one, was accepted at the last meeting from Mrs. Tobin.

A resolution authorizing the delivery of the San Mateo High school bonds to the State Treasurer was adopted.

On motion of Coleman seconded by Blackburn it was ordered that none of the claims of the contractors furnishing supplies to the poor farm be allowed until they had filed their bonds.

The clerk was directed to notify Rainey & Phillips to proceed with the cleaning of the stone work of the courthouse.

Architect Allen presented the drawings and specifications for the gas and electric fixtures for the Courthouse. They will cost $5000. The committee of the board will submit them to contractors for bids.

The Clerk was directed to notify the American Bank Protection Co. to have its representative meet the board as soon as possible to discuss its burglar alarm system.

The board adjourned to meet next Monday.

New Actions Commenced.

Rudolph Ehlers has commenced a suit in the Superior Court against Knaut Henningson to dissolve a co-partnership. The parties formed a co-partnership in last November for the purpose of raising poultry and ducks at Colma for the market. Plain title complains that Henningson has appropriated some of the funds to his own use and benefit and has failed to account to his partner though asked on several occasions to do so. Mr. Ehlers asks that the property of the concern be disposed of and that the debts be paid and the surplus divided between the partners. Harry E. Styles is the attorney for the plaintiff.

The A. L. Young Machinery Company has brought suit against Henry Maier to recover $400 on a concrete mixer. The parties to the suit entered into an agreement in September, 1909, whereby the plaintiff was to furnish defendant with a Number 0 Chicago Concrete Mixer. He was to have an option on the mixer for a period of 60 days and was to pay $3 per day for the use of same and if he purchased it that amount would be placed to the credit of the purchase price of $400. Mr. Maier has not returned the mixer nor paid the purchase price. The Machinery Company also asks for interest and costs of suit.

Margaret Francis Henriouille has brought suit against her husband, Henry J. Henriouille, for an interlocutory decree of divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion. The parties were married in July 1908, and one child was born to them. The complaint alleges that Henriouille deserted his wife in October 1908 and has refused to support his wife or child. Mrs. Henriouille asks for the custody of the minor child.

Appraisers File Report.

H. C. Tuchsens, R. Pigon and E. T. Thompson, appraisers of the estate of Mary Drinkhouse, deceased, have filed their inventory and appraisal. The total value of the estate is placed at $25,648.38. It consists of money in the Humboldt Savings Bank amounting to $10,725.72, a deposit in the San Francisco Union $3,172.66, money in the hands of the executrix and executor $50, personal property $200. The real estate consists of lots 10, 11, 12 and 13, Polhemus Tract valued at $1500.

Marriage Ties Sundered.

Sophia Buttman has secured an interlocutory decree of divorce from her husband, Alfred Buttman, on stated grounds. She was given alimony in the sum of $20 per month and allot lot 82 block A in the Mission Tract, was made over to her. Peter A. Smith was given an interlocutory divorce by Judge Buck from his wife, Marie Smith on statutory grounds. The custody of the minor child is held in reserve by the court.

Judge Buck on Thursday granted an interlocutory decree of divorce to Carrie P. Duhem from her husband, George A. Duhem, on statutory grounds. The plaintiff was given the custody of the minor child and alimony in the sum of ten dollars per month for his support.

E. Brushard has brought suit against P. A. Adamson and his wife to recover the sum of $400 on a promissory note executed at San Francisco on February 4th, 1909. The note is secured by a mortgage on lots 25 and 26, block 5, Highland Park. The complaint asks that the property be sold by the sheriff to satisfy the amount of the mortgage. The plaintiff also asks for $24 for interest due from February 4th, 1909, to February 4th, 1910 and costs of the suit.

Assessor's Instructions
The law requires each and every person who owns any class of property in the County of San Mateo, during the months of March, April or May, to make a statement to the Assessor or his deputy in the county, showing the property located. You should give a statement of all property owned by you on the first Monday in March at 10 o'clock a. m.

If you hold mortgages against others and in a mortgage statement showing the amount due on each mortgage on the first Monday in March at 10 o'clock a. m.

No change can be made by the Assessor after he turns his books over to the Board of Supervisors on the first Monday in July. The Board then sets as a Board of Equalization.

Remember, if you fail to give in your assessment you fall to comply with the law and may cause your property to be sold by the Collector much trouble, and very likely cause your expense.

It is much more satisfactory to the Assessor, as well as to yourself, to have your assessment correct when you go to pay your taxes. C. D. HAYWARD, Assessor San Mateo County.
